Dear DMS Families,

How was your Thanksgiving holiday? In checking in with students today, it seems their favorite part of dinner was the mashed potatoes!

Here's what's happening at DMS:

- PTO Meeting: You are all invited to the next virtual PTO meeting tomorrow evening at 7:00 pm. I will address the recent updates I have sent home and Superintendent Welch will be joining us to discuss the next strategic plan. Click here for the Zoom link. Please do not post or share this link as it is only intended for DMS families. Also, please be sure your Zoom name is identifiable.
- Term 1: The first trimester is ending this Friday. Please log into PowerSchool to be sure your child isn't missing any assignments! Report cards will be posted online on December 10th.
- MWAHS: We had some technical difficulties with our first attempt at the MetroWest Adolescent Health Survey and we have rescheduled it to this Friday. If you had previously opted your child out of the survey, you do not need to take any action as we have kept the list for this new date.
- Early Release: Please mark your calendars for the next early release day on December 9th. We will dismiss at 11:35 am.
- Sources of Strength: If your child is a part of Sources, there will be an after school meeting on Tuesday December 7th. Students can sign up for the late bus if they need transportation.
- Papa Gino's: Please see the attached flyer for information on how ordering from Papa Gino's on December 9th can also benefit our PTO!
- Art Request: Ms. Tausevich's art class is in need of some small items for project embellishment. Take a look at the attachment to see how you can help!

I hope your week is off to a wonderful start.

With gratitude,
Karen
