Faith Koroma-Coker

Hi I'm Faith! 17 years old and livin' it up in Dedham. I'd say I'm pretty involved in the school seeing that I'm a part of the advanced vocal ensemble, track team, debate club, secretary of NHS, math team, spanish club, student council, e.t.c. I also participate in various volunteer activities throughout the year. At the moment, I would say my favorite teacher is my precalc teacher Mrs. Whitcomb because I love her enthusiasm in class and she's a great story teller. I'd say I have a very wide range of music that I listen too; including rap, pop, R&B, and many more. I'm pretty nervous about the college application process, but I'm very excited for senior year. I look forward to being a link crew leader and getting to know you guys and helping you out. I know high school can be a little scary at first but I hope that link crew will help your experience better. If you see me in the halls, don't be afraid to say hi- I love meeting new people! Look forward to meeting you guys!
