

Robotics Club Description

The Robotics Club is an after school activity for students with an interest in Robots and Robotics a place to be involved in activities that relate to robot construction and operation.

Students will be involved in activities such as

- Theory and operation of Robots
- Construction of robots
- Robot competitions