

Computer Club gathers together students who are interested in technology. Our purpose is to inform and engage students about new tech topics and gadgets, invite tech speakers, promotion of tech careers and educating COA (Council on Aging) members with technology as a community service. All students are welcome to join.

Advisor: Dan Willey